

Thanks for the tip!

Notice any cats around with ears that look a little ... different? Ear-tipping identifies community cats who have been sterilized and vaccinated.

Help local cats join the tipster crowd! They'll be healthier and safer, and you'll be doing your part to humanely reduce outdoor cat populations.

Learn more at humanesociety.org/communitycats.